Volume 22

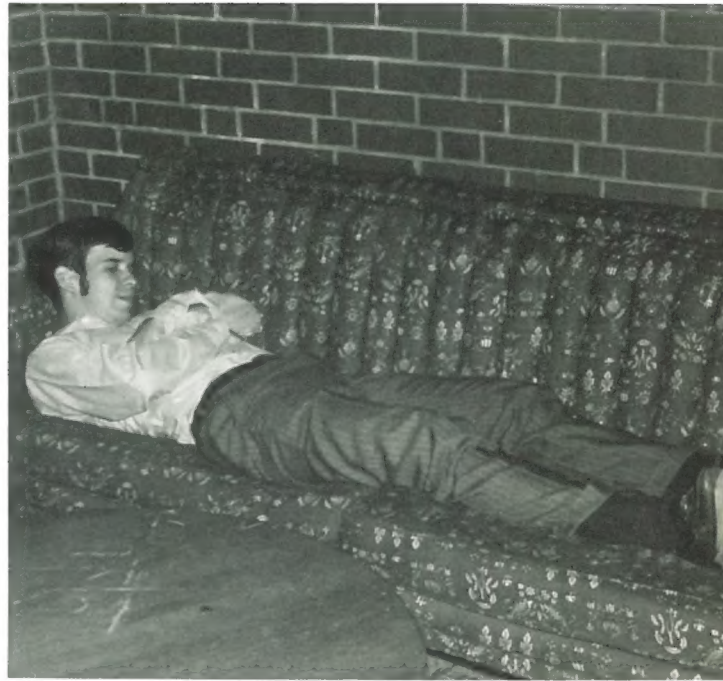

1970

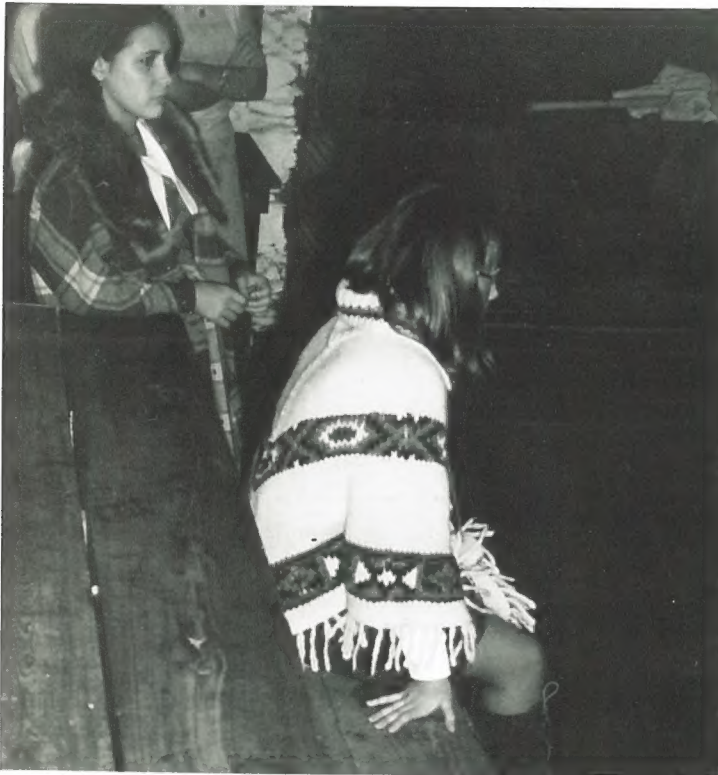

We enter life to search
for wisdom
carrying hope toward
the future.
We come to seek
and leave
fulfilled.
Learning to live,
it's our generation.
We learn of life
and look forever.
We hear of life
and speak forever.
We are life.

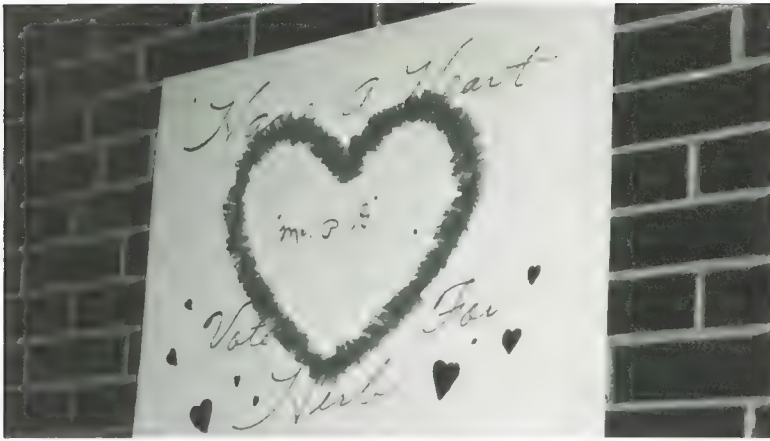

Echoing halls stand waiting
then fill with laughter,
Bells ring, desks scrape,
people shout, and meet
with echoes
of years past.

Shiny halls are scuffed
and lockers slammed
as transient residents
rush
to class.

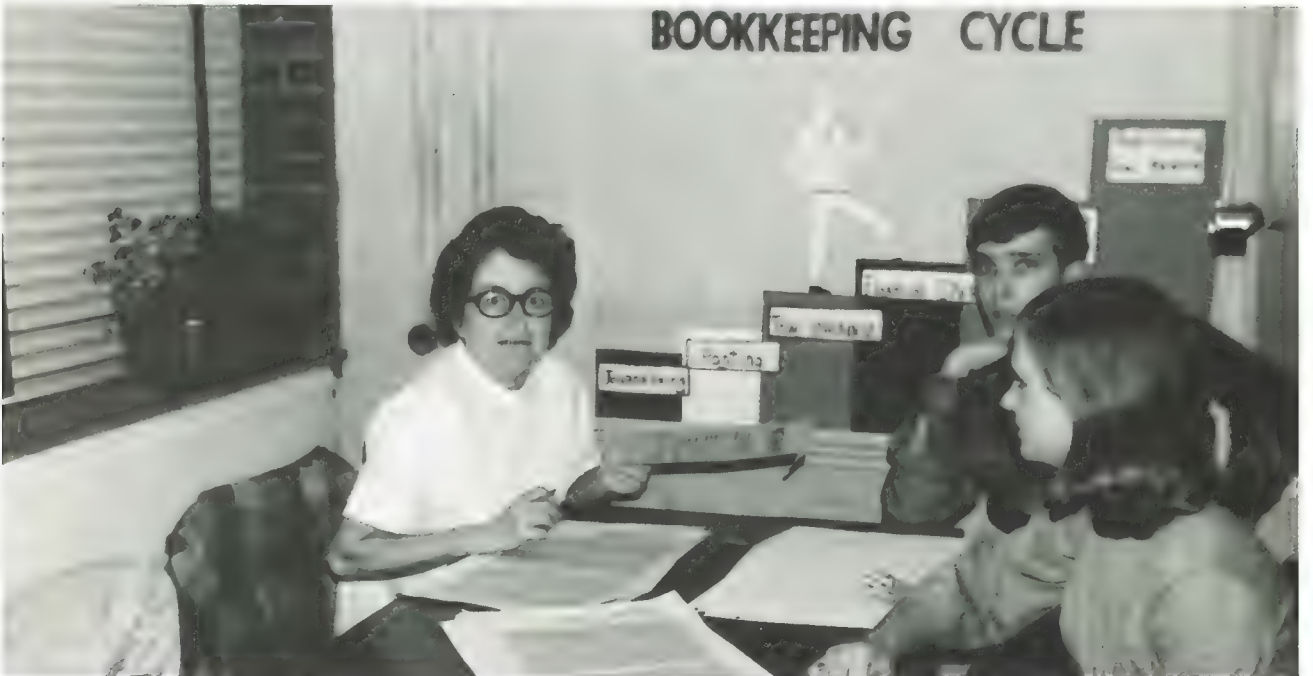

Joy of coming, sadness of parting,
then Echoing halls stand waiting.

Adulthood comes
and school must end.
Yet, with the leaving
and the going
the school goes too.
Nothing comes
but it must go.
As we enter life
we find that
with us
there are memories.

Four golden years have slipped silently into eternity. All that remains are memories. We rushed into this "our" year, impulsive and eager to meet the approaching tide of maturity. Our year quickly moving into the stream of past recollection, we pace swiftly and surely toward the future. Proudly for we are young; though still awed by adulthood's responsibilities. Awakening to a consciousness of life, we advance to the brink of awareness. Idealistic and fearless we turn our faces to the dawn of a new day. Suddenly we realize that "sometime" is soon tomorrow; tomorrow becomes today; and that only yesterday is forever. Childhood becomes a melancholy memory; the present bewildering; the future a challenge.

From the threshold of adulthood there are many things I could wish for you. I dare not: your dreams, your hopes, your ambitions are your sacred property. The choice is yours. Perhaps these years so swiftly sped have helped prepare you to seek your goals.

It is now time to make a new departure and run dancing into life. Demand, speak, hope, dream. Question old values and seek new answers. Wring dry today and challenge tomorrow.

Leave, to someday return to the time when we were all young, gay, hopeful, and together. That is enough.

Jane Ellen Simmons

Broyhill...

a leader in employment

Broyhill's main office building in Lenoir employs more than 300.

It was the eve of the depression and businesses were going bankrupt like apples dropping from a tree. That's when J.E. Broyhill took over the reins of Broyhill Furniture Industries. Under his determined guidance, the company not only weathered the storm but began a period of phenomenal growth. In one generation, the company grew from a small plant employing a handful of men to a furniture giant with more than 5,000 employees. Today, Broyhill builds with the same enthusiasm that characterized pioneering efforts in the days of the depression. And that's why it continues to grow at one of the fastest rates in the furniture industry.

BETTER LIGHT = BETTER SIGHT

Good light heads off drowsiness and speeds you through assignments. So make sure your bulb is in the proper size, that your lamp shade reflects light, and that it flares enough to diffuse light over all your work area. Make good light your friend . . . for life. It costs so little, means so much!
